

Imagine

Imagine Your Mother Loves You , She Says “ I’ll be there to the end”,

Imagine Your Father Loves You, I’ll Be your closest Friend.

Imagine Your Brothers Love You and you can Love them too,

Imagine Your Sisters Love you , And all that you can do !

Yes now you have a happy Home, you’ll never be alone,

Yes the words “ I Love You “ are written In Moses stone.

On sweet reflection , you look in the Mirror on the wall,

What a beautiful sight you see , you’re almost ten foot tall !.

The good in you just starts to grow in everything you say and do !

And all the while in perfect style, you can always say yes “ I do Love you”.

And Your Family crew your wife and you have grown to be the same,

And the sons you know can also show. Yes “dad” we love your Georgie name!

Your friends indeed have also decreed, He is different than the rest,

And his time in Rhyme well yes sublime ,We are certainly impressed,

But now the rule he is no fool, Only Jesus will be his lifetime Judge,

And when he smiles he also riles, and maybe a gentle nudge.

He'll say as you live and also forgive , you'll show the " Love " in you

And once again I can't say when You will join the best of Two,

Your Mam and Dad In Heavens Arms This is where you must end,

And "Imagine " now A Jesus Bow, and to Heaven I will send!
