

James Doyle

James Doyle was just another homeless young man,
But His young life ended before it barely began,
He was twenty Nine when through suicide he died,
But had any Civil Servant in the HPU just cried ?

No they have some fun and play Bureaucratic games
They will never be the ones who Society just blames,
As James cuts his wrists and in his last breath exclaims !
Where I finally go now , No HUMAN has Domains !

James is buried in Glasnevin , Yes just under wet clay,
And no Family visits, where he rests to this day,
And the HPU Civil Servant, will never ever say
That they sent James to his Suicide that day !

Go to a night hostel and do what we say !
Or your money dear James , we will take away !
And finally The HPU got its Soul less old way !
James no longer needs money , OKAY ?

So here ends my story of young James Doyle,
The HPU to this day I still hate and revile
And maybe true Irish Men will finally recoil,
At our Social Welfare's ongoing true style !

But someday the welfare officers of the HPU,
Will Start to die maybe One or Two By TWO
And They will be homeless as I bid them Adieu,
For them No Home with My Heavenly Crew !

GEORGE NOEL FINN (c) 7th JULY 2007
Dedicated To James Doyle & Homeless Henry
From a story by Henry Smith