

Lucy

Today a lovely lady called Lucy, is celebrating another birthday,
Lucy's Loving mother loved Lucy in her special way,
And now Lucy loves to party, and at weekends Lucy will dance,
Because when you are there with the fellows, who knows , maybe romance ?

So here is a good wish for you Lucy, from all of your sweet loving friends,
Tonight maybe the Girls will all party , till dawn signals it ends.
And when you are all warm and cosy, and asleep in your lovely bed,
In your dreams this wonderful evening, see the man you hope you will wed.
