

Reactor

You can sell another nuclear bomb, or another nuclear reactor,

But here's a life question, here's a life factor ?

Will you meet your loving, pure energy creator ?

Or just a strange , demonic Hell Gate Traitor !

You already know the answer, it's how you live your creed,

And have you sold your heavenly soul, for a short term earthly greed ?

You will meet some master, but what has HE decreed ?

That all depends my friends , on how you do the deed !

Is there a resolution, to how you sow your crop ?

Yes stop and think my friends, before you begin to stop !

Beause when it's all over, and it's time to drop,

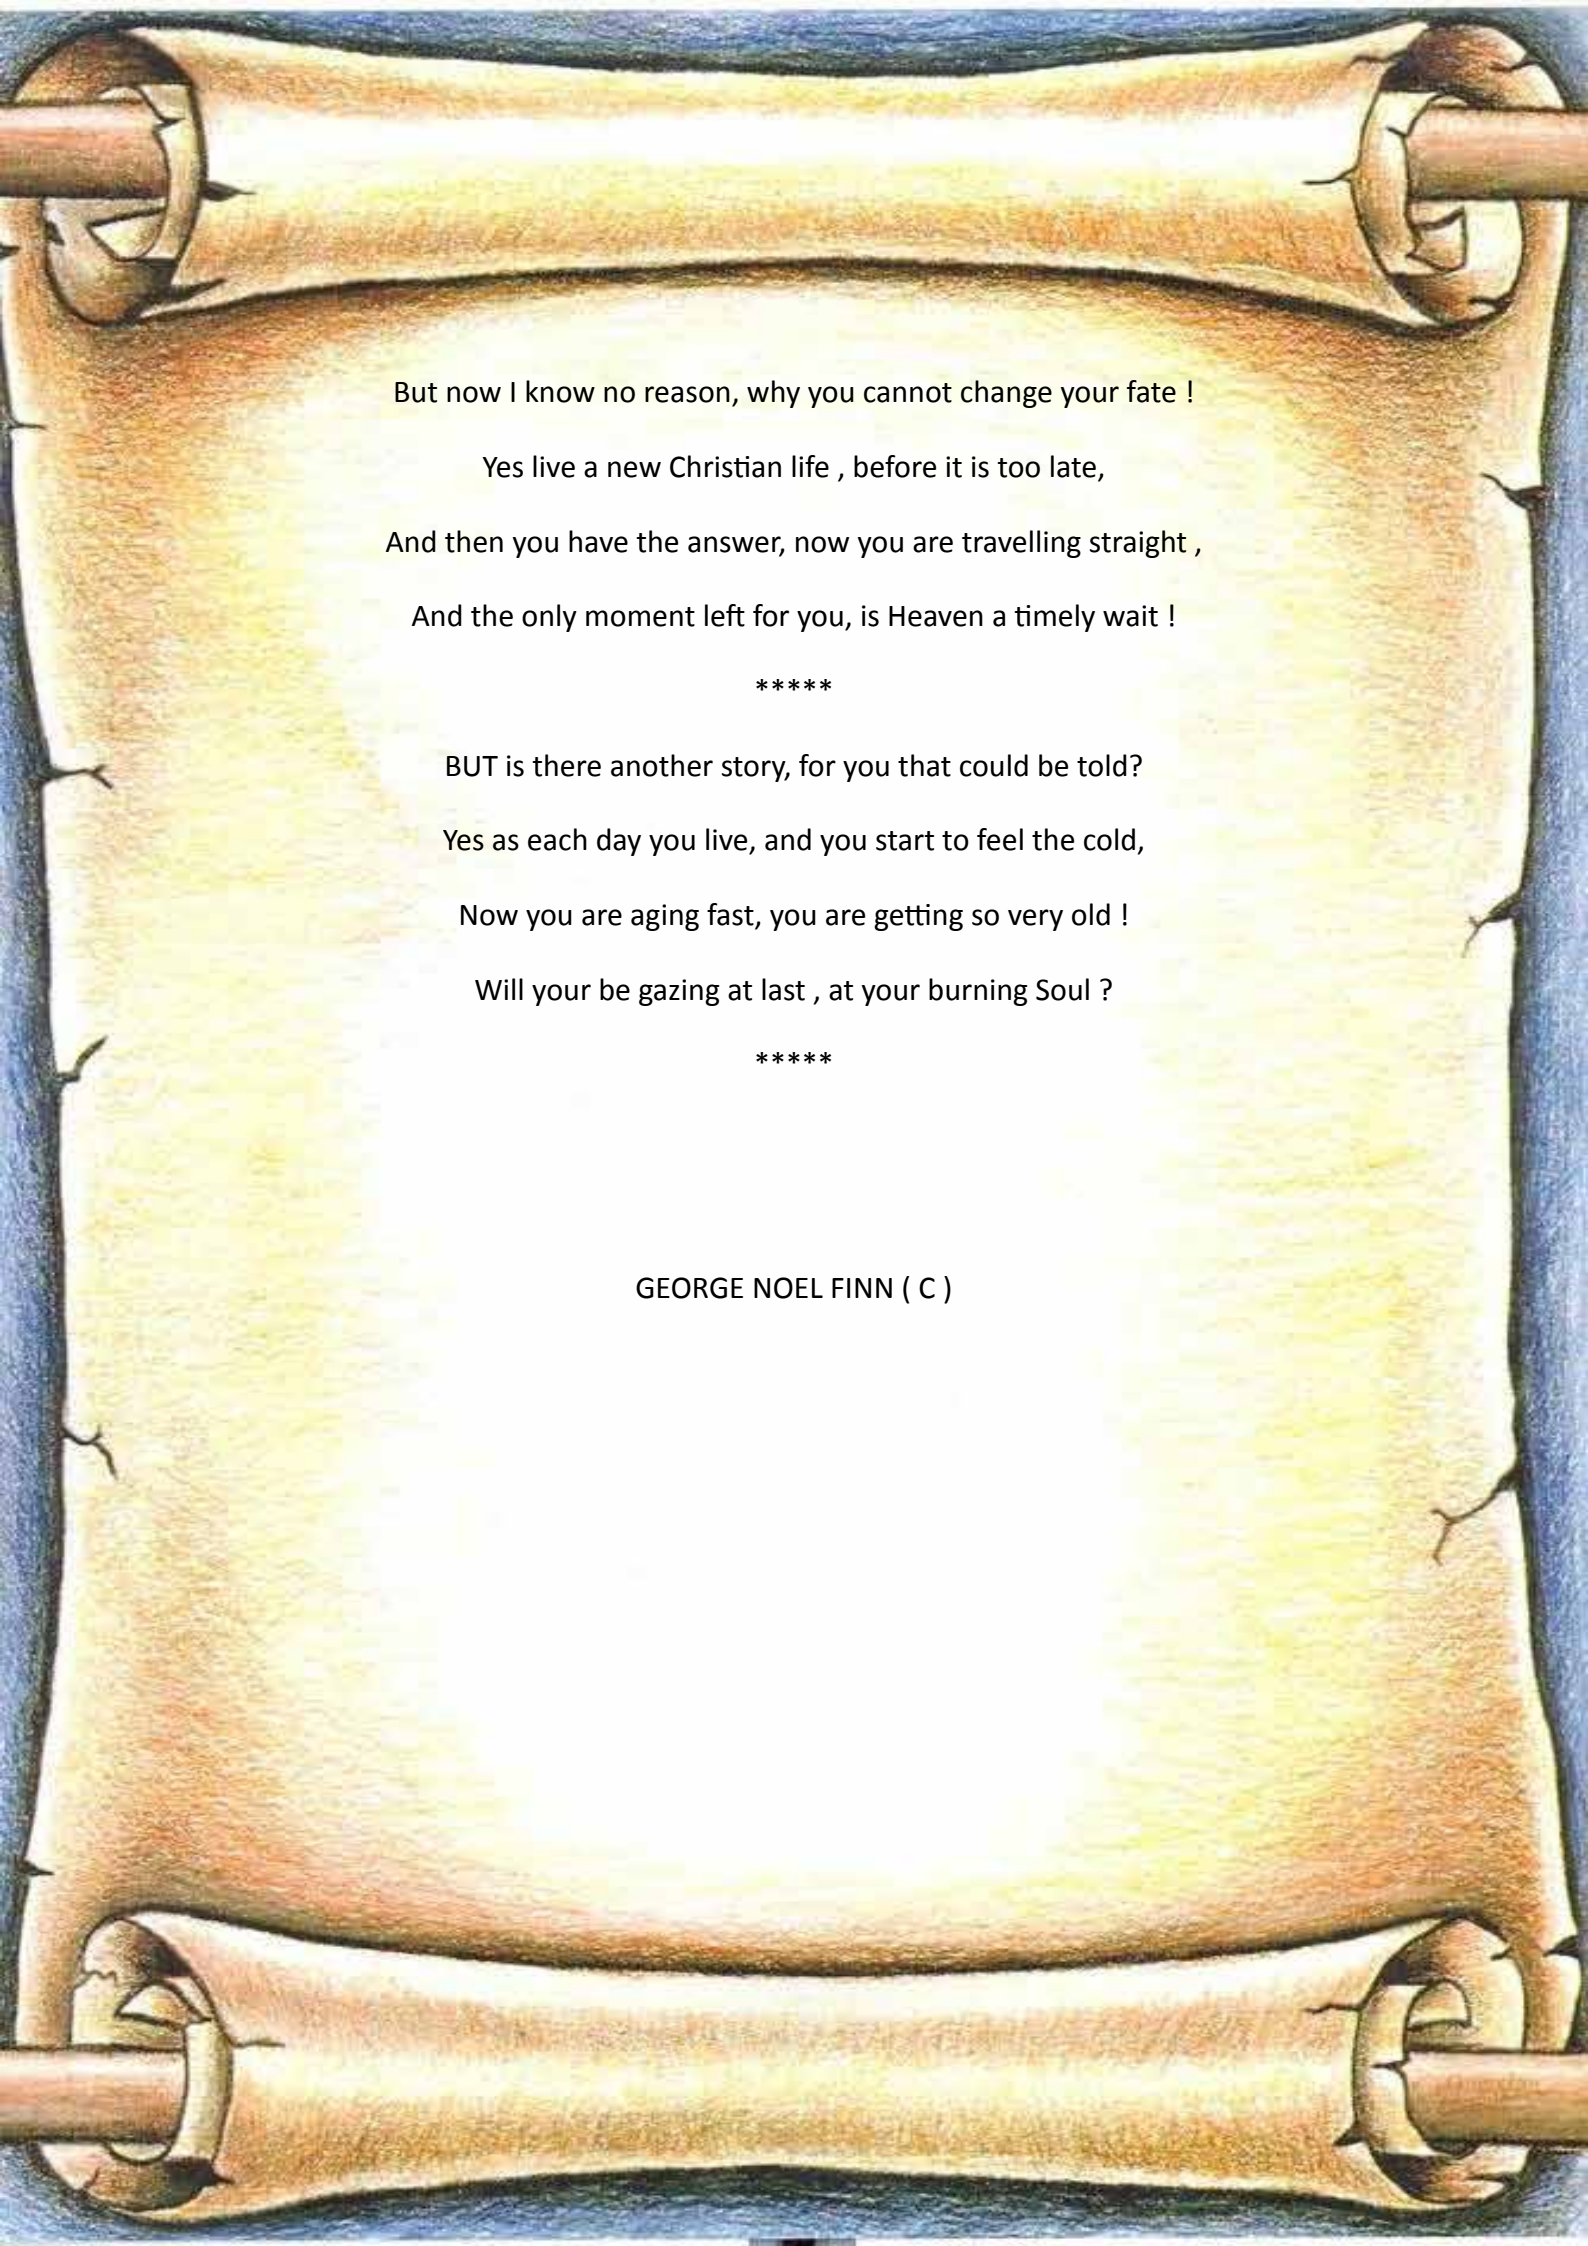

Into to a grave you've chosen, will you be for the Chop ?

For some a destination, for some a mouldy hole,

for some pure redemption, It happens to your soul,

But sometimes the grim Grim Reaper, takes a deadly toll,

He simply takes away your chance, to be another Heavenly soul !

But now I know no reason, why you cannot change your fate !

Yes live a new Christian life , before it is too late,
And then you have the answer, now you are travelling straight ,
And the only moment left for you, is Heaven a timely wait !

BUT is there another story, for you that could be told?

Yes as each day you live, and you start to feel the cold,
Now you are aging fast, you are getting so very old !
Will your be gazing at last , at your burning Soul ?
