

The Rich Get Rich

The rich get rich by feeding off the needs of the poor !

And when about, they will shout " do more or I'll show you the door,

But that is the creed of selfish greed, no happiness will they ever have,

And when they die with a roar , no Heavens door, no just a cold chilling enclave

And though they were rich, they end up in a ditch which we just call a grave,

And the Poor man called Dan , who drove a white van, is now no longer his slave !

And Dan stands and prays that that's where he stays, cause he will never be missed,

The Dan goes to the Pub for some soup and some grub, and happily he gets pissed.

Cause Mr Smith, he is paying for it, and look how his money gets used,

To help all Smith's crew finally screw the boss who in life just abused !

At the end of the day he's under the clay and now he will finally pay,

As this I can tell, he's now in a Hell, where he will eternally stay.

And Cead mile focal, as I start to chuckle, at those who want to be rich,

As a man called JC said to ten men and me , I just want you to preach!

Your Earthly Role , Save your Heavenly soul, And now I'm telling you this,

If you live a good life , help those who're in strife, you will have heaven its bliss !
