

The Warrior's Prayer

I am what I am.

In Having faith in the beauty within me I develop trust.

In Softness I have strength.

In Silence I walk with the gods.

In Peace I understand myself and the world.

In Conflict I walk away.

In Detachment I am free.

In respecting all living things I respect myself.

In Dedication I honour the courage within me.

In Eternity I have compassion for the nature of all things.

In Love I unconditionally accept the evolution of others.

In Freedom I have power.

In my Individuality I express the God Force within me.

In Service I give of what I have become.

I am what I am.

Eternal, Immortal, Universal, and Infinite,
And so be it.
