

Time To Decide

Its time to decide now between evil and good,
Between the Devil and God , as its just understood,
Its Time to decide now, between Hell and Heaven,
Between the crumbling dust or Bread unleaven !

Its Time to decide between what is wrong and what is right,
Between the Dark and Light, and all things bright !
Its Time to decide now , what You will defend,
Between a Rich corpse or a redeeming end.

Its Time to decide now, between rich and poor,
Between Mammon and Jesus, and who will endure,
Its time to decide now, on who you will be,
The Devils friend, or one who loves J.C.

Its time to decide now between, cruel and just,
Between Hate and Love, and which you can trust !
Its time to decide now, on your life long choice,
A Hell you can visit, or a Heaven to rejoice.

Because What you decide, will be your true story,

A very sad end, Or a much greater glory !

Decide now to follow , the Man on The Cross,

On Judgement day , there will be no Soul loss !

THE END
